MARSHFIELD.

Between 350 and 400 tickets were sold at this station for Montpelier centennial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Dustin Scott and son, Frank, of East Calais were visitors of Mrs. Flora B. Bliss over Wednesday night.

Miss Emory Benton and Mrs. G. F. Bliss will be among those who will go on the annual excursion to Boston next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hodkins and daughter of Rochester, Vt., were guests of Postmaster and Mrs. A. T. Davis through the first of the week, and attended the centennial from here, returning to their home Friday.

The delinquent taxes are now in the hands of the tax collector, J. Berton Pike. He has the fewest names and the least money to collect since he held that office, for five years. There are 59 names, representing the amount of $512.19.

The report sent to the Times by some unknown person that the robbers were traced from the village to the J. H. Eaton place, etc., was wholly unfounded, also that Mark Mears' store was broken into. The store was undisturbed and all trace of the men stopped at the depot road, near E. C. Pitkin's house.

The manager of the Marshfield Building Association has caused brass corner fixtures to be placed in the rooms and upon all the stairs of the K. of P. building. This invention is a labor saver and prevents the corners from getting "filled up". L. R. Adams is sole agent for this device and places them on the floors in connection with the sale.

Constable J. Berton Pike was called to the station last Tuesday afternoon to investigate a suspicious individual who was thought to be implicated in the most office robbery. However, an overhauling of his possessions and inquiry proved him innocent. It has been recently reported that the thieves had been located, but no trace of them as yet has appeared.

Welcomed by the Captain.

Capt. Henry Saylor went down to the depot last night to meet his new cork leg, which arrived on the Kansas City train—Leesville, Mo., Light.

Jacob A. Riis, police reporter, evangel against darkness in modern tenements, spoke in Lewistown city hall Monday evening and left behind him an open book full of blazing lines and "pictures that speak." Mr. Riis has a remedy for the evils he depicts and in this his reform is practical and pertinent. Tear down and build; clean and sweep; let in the sunlight—Lewistown (Me.) Journal.

A meeting of the bridge commissioners of Vermont and New Hampshire was held in Brattleboro yesterday for the purpose of ascertaining the number of free bridges, between Vermont and New Hampshire, at or near Brattleboro, their cost, the amount paid by towns in Vermont in freeing them, where new bridges are needed, and what an equitable division of the cost of such bridges and their maintenance would be.

A delightful lecture, the charm and the value of which, in the case of that delivered by Mr. Jacob A. Riis at the College street church last evening, it is impossible to describe. A packed house greeted Mr. Riis' first appearance in this city; and their absorbing interest in the man and his presentation of "Tony's Hardships" was shown in their free applause, ready laughter and as ready sighs.—Burlington (Vt.) The Supreme Court of the United States, to which the case has been appealed will convene Monday, and as Mondays are "motion" days with the court, the petition naturally will come up for consideration that day. It may go over a day or possibly be put over to the following Monday.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root, and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mansfield, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Farrier A. E. Cline of Troop M. Said to Have Misappropriated Grain.

Fort Ethan Allen, Oct. 9.—As the command from Fort Ethan Allen was returning from their Montpelier trip Second Lieut. Wiley P. Mangum, squadron quartermaster and commissary officer, placed Farrier Albert E. Cline, Troop M, under charge of the guard by order of Colonel Wallace. The charge against Cline will be larceny, it being alleged that a quantity of grain was misappropriated by the accused. The officers at the fort are very reticent about the affair owing to the high standing of the accused's parents. He is the son of Samuel Cline, a well known drayman at Everett, Mass. Cline has been in the army for the past 17 months and is 27 years of age. He is well known in this city and throughout the surrounding country, having done an extensive business in the trading of horses.

Cline married a little over a year ago Miss Anna May Flint, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Flint of Winoski.

More than half of the $50,000 is already subscribed. The charter provides for a capital stock of $50,000 in shares of $50 each.

Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases. Prevents grip and pneumonia. At the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Guaranteed. Price 50c and $1.00. Profit in Poultry Food.

The best evidence that there is money in feeding Poultry Food is the fact that the most successful poultrymen use it extensively. B. L. Brown, who is principal of Sherman Collegiate Institute, Moriah, N. Y., is also something of a poultry fancier. Read what he says about Poultry Food: "I have used 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' for five years with entire satisfaction and would not be without it. For growing chicks and laying fowls it is a very superior food."
